St. James's, October 17.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Roſs, in Synod aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Roſs, beg Leave, by this our moſt humble Addreſs, to expreſs our deep and hearty Concern for the Death of your Royal Father our moſt gracious Sovereign, one of the wiſeſt and beſt of Princes, as well the Ornament and Glory of the Britiſh Throne, as the zealous Defender of the Proteſtant Churches: This awful and ſurprizing Providence, juſtly affected our Hearts with unſpeakable Grief and Sorrow.

At the ſame Time we take this firſt Opportunity of our meeting together in Synodical Capacity, moſt heartily to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Father; and ceaſe not to give Thanks to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, who hath raiſed up a Proteſtant Heir and Succeſſor to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, whom he hath endowed with ſuch bright and eminent Virtues and princely Accompliſhments as ſhine forth in your Majeſty's Perſon, to the great and univerſal Joy, not only of your own Subjects, but alſo of all the Lovers of the Proteſtant Religion and the Liberties of Europe; whoſe Eyes are upon your Majeſty as the great Inſtrument, under God, for the Preſervation and Support of theſe valuable Intereſts. This great Turn of Providence could only repair ſo ſenſible and great a Loſs as your People have ſuſtained.

We cannot but remark on this Occaſion, with the greateſt Pleaſure and Thankfulneſs, the diſtinguiſhing Goodneſs of God towards your illuſtrious Houſe, and your People of theſe Realms. As this was eminently diſcovered in ſettling the Succeſſion in your auguſt, and powerful Family, and in bringing your Royal Father to the Throne in Peace, (memorable Bleſſings to theſe Nations, uſhered in by the moſt ſignal Providences); ſo now, by your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown, and the univerſal Joy of your People thereupon, the expiring Hopes of your Adverſaries, the Adherents of a Popiſh Pretender, thoſe declared Enemies of our Conſtitution, will for ever vaniſh.

The early Declarations your Majeſty was pleaſed to give of your Love and Affection to your People, of your firm Reſolution to defend and protect the Proteſtant Intereſt Abroad, and maintain it in theſe your own Dominions; the diſtinguiſhing Marks of your Royal Favour you have been pleaſed to beſtow upon the Church of Scotland; the benign Influence of your Majeſty's Government, ſince you came to the Throne, upon all your Subjects; together with a Queen Conſort, who hath juſtly obtained ſo ſhining a Character in the World for Soundneſs of Proteſtant Principles, and all Royal Endowments ſuitable to her Station; and a numerous Royal Off-ſpring, ſo hopeful; do give us the moſt agreeable Proſpect of Happineſs under your Majeſty's Protection and Government, and that your Royal Family will prove a laſting Bleſſing to lateſt Poſterity.

We make up a Part of a Body whoſe Principles lead them to maintain the juſt Rights of Kings and Princes, and are moſt loyal to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. The Church of Scotland hath on all Occaſions ſhewed her great Affection and Zeal for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe; as we aſſure your Majeſty of conſtant and dutiful Obedience from ourſelves, ſo we ſhall uſe the utmoſt Diligence to teach and maintain the genuine Principles of Loyalty among the People under our Charge.

We ſhall always put up our moſt earneſt Prayers to God for the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon; that you may reign in the Hearts of your Subjects; that He may pour down his beſt Bleſſings upon the Queen Conſort, the Prince of Wales and the whole Royal Family; that He may build your Majeſty a ſure Houſe on Earth to ſucceeding Generations, and crown you at laſt with His eternal Glory in Heaven.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt obedient, moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Roſs, in Synod aſſembled at Tayn, the 13th Day of September 1727.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by

Tho. Inglis, Moderator.

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Longford, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County at Longford, the 31ſt Day of July 1727: And alſo of the Sovereign, Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough of Longford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, and to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of our late gracious Sovereign.

It is with infinite Pleaſure and Satisfaction we behold a Prince on the Throne, who ſo early ſignalized himſelf in the Defence of the Liberties of Europe.

Your Majeſty's juſt and prudent Adminiſtration, when Guardian of theſe your Dominions, and your moſt gracious Declaration on your Acceſſion to the Throne, fully demonſtrate your tender and affectionate Regard for the Welfare of your People; and we doubt not, but every Act of your Majeſty, will be a freſh Inſtance of your fatherly Care of them.

As we are truly ſenſible of the Goodneſs of Almighty God in placing a Crown on the Head of your Royal Conſort, which ſhe ſo juſtly deſerves; ſo we are heartily thankful to Him for bleſſing your Majeſty and your People with a numerous Iſſue.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that there may never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Family to fill the Throne, is the ſincere Wiſh and earneſt Prayer of your faithful People, who ſhall upon all Occaſions ſhew themſelves moſt zealouſly affected to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Antrim, aſſembled at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County, the 15th of July 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to lay hold on this Opportunity of expreſſing to your Majeſty our unfeigned Grief and Concern for the Death of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign; an Affliction that lay ſo heavy on us, that nothing but your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Nations could remove: But that undiſturbed Peace and univerſal Tranquility with which we behold your Majeſty aſcending the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, diſpels our Sorrows, and fills our Minds with inexpreſſible Joy and Satisfaction.

If the Senſe of preſent, and Proſpect of future Happineſs, are Grounds ſufficient for any People to triumph and rejoyce in, what Tranſports muſt poſſeſs our Minds at this Time, when we reflect on thoſe many and princely Virtues for which your Majeſty has ever been ſo conſpicuous; when we reflect on that early and affectionate Declaration of your Care and Concern for the Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed; and the paternal Aſſurances you have given us from the Throne, of providing for all your Peoples Welfare and Security in their Religious and Civil Rights; and when we add to theſe Reflections the unſpeakable Bleſſing of having a Queen, your Royal Conſort, who has long ſince convinced the World, that the Splendor of what is Great cannot allure her from the Profeſſion of what is Good, and has bleſſed your Majeſty and theſe Nations with ſo many Royal Pledges of our future Felicity and Security. From all theſe ſober and juſt Reflections, what may we not hope for? What may we not be certain of, who are ſo happy as to live under your Majeſty's Protection?

Out of a due Senſe therefore of thoſe numberleſs Bleſſings we at preſent do, and are perſwaded ſhall, enjoy through the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's Reign, we beg Leave to preſent your Majeſty with our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for them, with our heartieſt Wiſhes of a long and glorious Reign over us, and with our ſincereſt Profeſſions of Duty and Loyalty.

We alſo beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the utmoſt Vigilance and Vigour, detect and oppoſe, as much as in us lies, any latent Treachery or open Force of all thoſe that ſhall at any Time be ſo wicked as to deſign, or ſo inſolent as to attempt to injure or diſturb your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, with which our Religion, Liberties and Properties are, we are moſt firmly perſwaded, inſeparably united, and which ſhall ever be as dear to us, as thoſe invaluable Bleſſings are to all Mankind.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmeath, in the Kingdom of Ireland, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County at Mullingare, the 26th Day of July, 1727.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices

Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the ſaid County, do humbly crave Leave to take this firſt Occaſion of laying before your Majeſty our inexpreſſible Sorrow for the Deceaſe of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Majeſty's Royal Father, of ever glorious Memory, by the ineſtimable Bleſſings of whoſe auſpicious and proſperous Reign, and by whoſe great and wiſe Adminiſtration, our Religion, Liberties and Properties, are ſo happily ſecured; the Peace and Tranquility of all Europe ſo well ſettled; and the Trade and Commerce of your Majeſty's Dominions put into ſo proſperous and flouriſhing a Condition.

We moſt humbly beg Leave at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, which is the only Event that could poſſibly make Reparation for the great Loſs your Majeſty's Dominions, and we of this Nation in particular, have ſo lately ſuſtained.

We cannot ſufficiently adore the great Goodneſs and Providence of God, that hath manifeſted itſelf, not only in placing your Majeſty in the Seat of your Royal Father, but alſo in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects, which ſo viſibly appear by the concurrent Demonſtrations of Joy ſhewn by all your People on your Acceſſion to the Throne. And we eſteem it the greateſt of Bleſſings to theſe Nations, that the Happineſs which we now enjoy under your Majeſty's glorious Adminiſtration, is in ſo fair a Proſpect of being continued to us and our lateſt Poſterity by your numerous and Royal Iſſue, Inheritors of your Majeſty's great and tranſcendent Virtues, and alſo of thoſe of your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, who is ſo bright an Ornament to your Majeſty's Crown, and adds ſo great a Security to the Succeſſion of it in the Proteſtant Line. We pray God long to continue your Majeſty's Reign over us, and to give your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort long and happy Days; and that we may never want one of the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover to ſway the Scepter of your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

St. James's, October 14.

This Day the King went to Hounſlow-Heath, where the Regiments of Foot commanded by the Right Honourable the Earl of Deloraine and the Lord Tyrawley, paſſed in Review before His Majeſty, and made a very fine Appearance.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint his Grace Charles Duke of Richmond, his Grace James Duke of Hamilton, his Grace William Duke of Mancheſter, and the Right Honourable Charles Earl of Selkirke, to be Gentlemen of His Majeſty's Bedchamber.
